<https://apnews.com/article/tiktok-ban-montana-china-data-chinese-government-71143a3a87c9a0b692d927f72b6fec70>

Montana is the first state to initiate a ban on the social media app TikTok, which is owned by a Chinese tech company. Legislators fear the Chinese Communist Party has access to too much of Americans' personal information, but many Americans consider the ban an infringement of their constitutional rights.

Take some time to reflect on your beliefs regarding freedom of speech; when, if ever, should the government be allowed to restrict one's freedom of speech or expression?

Do you believe that a TikTok ban can be justified as means to maintain public safety or does the ban infringe on first amendment rights?
